Dear Students,

As classes move online, you will need to make use of the electronic resources provided by the library. The library's website is librarybmc.com. There you will find links to all of our offerings. The EBSCOhost databases will be the our most comprehensive resource available off-campus. To log in to EBSCOhost, click the link at the top of the library homepage, or in the menu if viewing from a mobile device, and use the following credentials:

USERNAME: bmcguyton
PASSWORD: bmcstudent@19

EBSCOhost has scholarly ebooks and electronic journal articles you can use for your coursework. Please do not hesitate to reach out to the library for assistance. Our contact information can be found on our website, linked above.
